REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant claims, among other things, an adjustable candle holder including a base having a lower surface, an upper surface, a lower spring-retaining cavity and a post cavity, a slider sleeve having a lower edge that interfaces with the upper surface on the base, an upper end, a post sleeve, and an upper spring-retaining cavity, a compression spring inserted between the lower spring-retaining cavity on the base and the upper spring-retaining cavity on the slider sleeve, a candle retaining assembly including an upper section having a lower edge, an upper disk having a candle opening and dimensioned to interface with the upper edge on the slider sleeve, an attachment post that extends downward from the lower edge of the upper section and that is dimensioned to pass through the post sleeve on the slider sleeve and to be inserted into and be attached by an attachment means to the post cavity on the base, and means for allowing a candle to be inserted into the candle opening and subsequently gripping and centrally retaining the candle within the candle retaining assembly.

Art Unit: 3749

The prior art of record, taken alone or in combination therewith, does not disclose nor make obvious the combination as claimed by applicant.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
